Introduction to the EEOC Public Portal

The EEOC Public Portal is a secure, web-based application developed for individuals to interact with the EEOC regarding a complaint of employment discrimination. Using the EEOC Public Portal, you may file a complaint against an employer in the Private Sector (i.e. Business or non-profit) or a State or Local Government Agency. If you work or worked for the U.S. Federal Government as an employee or a contractor, or applied to work for the Federal Government, you may request a hearing with or appeal a decision to the EEOC regarding your formal EEO complaint. The EEOC Public Portal is the primary point of communication between you and the EEOC.

About the User's Guide

The EEOC Public Portal User's Guide ("User's Guide") provides comprehensive guidance for using the EEOC Public Portal's features and functions. The User's Guide is published as individual documents, each of which covers a feature or related features of the EEOC Public Portal.

The following EEOC Public Portal User's Guide documents are available; the highlighted Document Name is the one you're reading now:

- ❖ Vol 1 – Getting Started (learn about EEOC Public Portal access, structure, and other basic information)
- ❖ Vol 2 – Submit an Online Inquiry to the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 3 – Post-Inquiry Tasks (learn about scheduling an interview with the EEOC, entering additional information about an online inquiry, and signing a Charge of Discrimination)
- ❖ Vol 4 – Post-Charge Tasks (learn how to check the status of your charge, respond to an Invitation to Mediate, and request/respond to a Respondent's Position Statement)
- ❖ Vol 5 – Charge Closure (learn what happens when your charge has been closed)
- ❖ Vol 6 – Federal Sector EEO Complaint Hearings with the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 7 – Appealing Federal Agency Decisions to the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 8 – Manage Case/Charge Information (learn how to display information about your case, enter/update your personal information, add representatives, and submit/receive documents associated with your case)

Chapter 1 Getting Started

The EEOC Public Portal is your means of communicating with the EEOC regarding discrimination complaints. Here you can submit a discrimination complaint electronically, track the progress of your case, upload associated documents and manage information about your representative(s). You will also receive notification from the EEOC in the Portal when an action is required regarding your case.

The EEOC Public Portal Home page has four links to choose from which are described in detail in Chapter 5:

- Filing with EEOC – Allows you to submit an inquiry, hearing request, an appeal, or a request for reconsideration.
- My Cases – Allows you to view information about and track the progress of your case(s). You can upload documents and enter/update information about your representative(s).
- Guidance – Allows you to view the Public Portal User Guide.
- Find an EEOC Office – Allows you to locate an EEOC office.

There is also a FAQ section in the Portal that provides you with helpful information based on a search of the EEOC articles. The most frequently visited articles are listed there. The EEOC Public Portal is Section 508-compliant, which means the website is accessible to people with disabilities.

Chapter 6 Keyboard Navigation

For brevity, procedures in the User's Guide presume that you'll use your mouse to navigate the EEOC Public Portal. However, the EEOC Public Portal is Section 508 compliant, so you can also navigate it using your keyboard.

❖ Tab, Shift+Tab Keys

Pressing the Tab key moves your cursor forward and pressing the Shift+Tab keys moves it back. The steps in the User's Guide's procedures typically follow the tabulation order of the screens.

❖ Space Key

Place your cursor on a checkbox field or radio button and press the Space key to add/remove a checkmark (this also can be used to select a radio button).

❖ «Key»+Up/Down Arrow Keys

Place your cursor on a field with a drop list, type a letter to drill-down to the list values that begin with that letter, and then use the Up (↑) or Down (↓) keys to scroll up or down through the listed values.

❖ Enter Key

Place your cursor on a button then press the Enter key to execute the button action. The Enter Key may also be used to enter the highlighted value in a drop-down list into a field.

Chapter 7 The Calendar Dialog

When you enter a date value (e.g., date of birth, date you filed your formal EEO complaint, etc.) you may select it using the calendar dialog.

When you encounter a field that lets you enter a date, when you place your cursor in the field the Calendar dialog will open. The dialog will display the current month, as shown in Figure 4 below:

The image shows a calendar dialog for October 2018. At the top, there are 'Prev' and 'Next' buttons. Below them is the text 'October 2018'. The calendar grid has columns for days of the week: Su, Mo, Tu, We, Th, Fr, Sa. The numbers 1 through 31 are arranged in rows. The number '1' is highlighted with a blue background.

Prev	October 2018						Next
Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

Above the Month and Year are the Prev and Next buttons, which let you select a different year and/or month by toggling through the calendar one month at a time.

The current day is highlighted for you in the calendar grid (e.g., "1" in Figure 4). If you want to enter a different day, click that day to highlight it.

Once you click on the desired date, the dialog will close and the date you selected will be entered in the field.
