Introduction to the EEOC Public Portal

The EEOC Public Portal is a secure, web-based application developed for individuals to interact with the EEOC regarding a complaint of employment discrimination. Using the EEOC Public Portal, you may file a complaint against an employer in the Private Sector (i.e. Business or non-profit) or a State or Local Government Agency. If you work or worked for the U.S. Federal Government as an employee or a contractor, or applied to work for the Federal Government, you may request a hearing with or appeal a decision to the EEOC regarding your formal EEO complaint. The EEOC Public Portal is the primary point of communication between you and the EEOC.

About the User's Guide

The EEOC Public Portal User's Guide ("User's Guide") provides comprehensive guidance for using the EEOC Public Portal's features and functions. The User's Guide is published as individual documents, each of which covers a particular feature or related features of the EEOC Public Portal.

The following EEOC Public Portal User's Guide documents are available; the highlighted Document Name is the one you're reading right now:

- ❖ Vol 1 – Getting Started (learn about logging into the EEOC Public Portal, the Portal structure, and other basic information)
- ❖ Vol 2 – Submit an Online Inquiry to the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 3 – Post-Inquiry Tasks (learn about scheduling an interview with the EEOC, entering Supplemental Information, filing a Charge of Discrimination)
- ❖ Vol 4 – Post-Charge Tasks (learn how to check the status of your case, respond to an Invitation to Mediate, request/respond to a Respondent's Position Statement)
- ❖ Vol 5 – Charge Closure (learn what happens when your charge has been closed)
- ❖ Vol 6 – Hearings with the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 7 – Appeals to the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 8 – Manage Case/Charge Information (learn how to display information about your case, enter/update your personal information, add representatives, and submit/receive documents associated with your case)

Chapter 1 What Happens After Filing a Charge

After you have filed a formal charge with the EEOC, you may follow the progress of your case and submit documents to the EEOC via the EEOC Public Portal. The EEOC will send you an email when an action is required and you can respond using the EEOC Public Portal.

Prior to starting an investigation, the EEOC may invite you and the respondent to participate in the EEOC's Mediation Program. Mediation is an opportunity for both parties to work with a neutral mediator to discuss and resolve the charge. There are several reasons to mediate:

1. Mediation is a no-cost, voluntary, and confidential. If the matter is resolved through mediation, no EEOC investigation will occur.
2. Most mediations are completed in one session. Legal representation is not required because mediation is an informal process.
3. A mediated solution also allows you to control the outcome while avoiding the cost, length, and uncertainty of an investigation and litigation.

If mediation does not occur or is not successful, the EEOC will investigate the charge and request a position statement from the Respondent. Once the Respondent uploads their Position Statement, you will be notified by the EEOC and may request a copy. You may also submit a response to the Position Statement.

The following tasks may be performed after filing a charge, most by using the EEOC Public Portal, and are described in this document:

1. Check the Status of Your Case (Chapter 2)
2. Amend a Charge (Chapter 3)
3. Respond to an Invitation to Mediate Your Charge (Chapter 4)
4. Request and Receive a Copy of the Respondent's Position Statement (Chapter 5)
5. Submit a Response to the Respondent's Position Statement (Chapter 6)

Each of these tasks is described in the chapters that follow.

You should also keep your contact information and legal representative information (if you are being represented) up-to-date. Also, be sure to upload any documents relevant to your charge. (For details on these tasks, refer to EEOC Public Portal User's Guide Vol 8 – Manage Case Information.)

The EEOC will notify you when your charge is closed, either because of successful mediation or at the conclusion of its investigation. You may view/download the closure document(s) using the EEOC Public Portal. For more on information on what happens when a charge is closed, refer to EEOC Public Portal User's Guide Vol 5 – Charge Closure.

Chapter 2 Check the Status of Your Charge

You can quickly view the status of your charge on the My Cases page in the EEOC Public Portal. To check the status of your charge, from the EEOC Public Portal perform the following steps:

Step 1. Select the My Inquiries/Charges/Cases link on the Home page.

Step 2. The My Cases page displays:

The screenshot shows the EEOC Public Portal interface. At the top, there is a header with the EEOC logo, the text "U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission", a home icon, and a user greeting "Welcome, Joan | Log Out". Below the header is a section titled "My Cases" containing a table with the following columns: Case Number, Submission Date, Type, and Status. The Status column is highlighted with a red box. The table contains five rows of data. At the bottom of the table, there is a pagination control showing "1 of 2" and "Current Page: 1".

Case Number	Submission Date	Type	Status
440-2019-00035	11-15-2018	CHARGE	Inquiry
440-2019-00004	10-09-2018	CHARGE	Charge is filed
440-2018-00199	08-31-2018	CHARGE	Inquiry
440-2018-00163	07-05-2018	CHARGE	Your charge has been transferred to the investigation division
440-2018-00159	07-02-2018	CHARGE	Inquiry

The Status column displays the current status for each charge/inquiry you have filed with the EEOC. You may then select the Case Number to display the My Case page and view additional information about the status of your case.

You can obtain details on the status of your charge by using the EEOC's Online Charge Status System. The system can be accessed through the EEOC Public Portal, as described below, and also at http://www.eeoc.gov/employees/charge_status.cfm

To view the status of your charge, from the EEOC webpage perform the following steps:

Step 3. Select the What you should DO after filing a charge link at the bottom of the page.

Step 4. Select the CHECK THE STATUS OF YOUR CHARGE ONLINE link.

Step 5. Select the Check your charge status link.

Step 6. The status screen displays.

- Tip! Hovering the mouse over a Status will display additional information about that activity.
- Tip! Hovering the mouse over "Next Steps" will display a narrative of the possible next steps in your case.

In this example above, the status of the charge is Investigation. The My Charge Status page will show all the stages for the charge up to the current status, plus what the next step(s) might be.

The statuses are defined in Table 1 below:

Table 1 – Online Charge Status System Status Descriptions

Status Category	Category Narrative
Intake	The Charging Party files a charge of discrimination against their employer; based on the information the CP provides the EEOC sends a notice and a copy of the charge to the employer.
Mediation	The EEOC works with you and your employer to try to resolve your charge by a voluntary settlement through an informal and confidential manner with the help of a neutral mediator. If your charge is not sent to mediation or if mediation does not resolve the problem, the charge will be given to an investigator.
Investigation	The EEOC gathers information to find out if a law has been violated. After the investigation is finished, the EEOC will let you and the employer know the outcome.
Conciliation	If the EEOC determines a law has been violated, it tries to remedy the harm caused by discrimination through attempting to reach a voluntary settlement with the employer. If a settlement cannot be reached, your case will be referred to our legal staff to decide whether or not the agency will file a lawsuit on your behalf.
Closed	Will describe the reason the case was closed. Category narrative will depend on the Closure Activity that was applied to your case.

Chapter 3 Amend Your Charge

If new events take place after you file your charge that you believe are discriminatory, the EEOC can add these new events to your charge and investigate them. This is called "amending" a charge.

You may amend a charge in the EEOC Public Portal by digitally signing the amended charge of discrimination that the EEOC prepares for you. Using the EEOC Public Portal you and/or your representative (if you have one) can review the document and recommend changes to it, but your representative cannot sign an amended charge of discrimination on your behalf.

3.1.1 Review by Charging Party (CP)

Your Charge is Eligible for Mediation

The EEOC Mediation Program:
Your Partner in Workplace Solutions!

We invite you to participate in the EEOC's Mediation Program to efficiently resolve your Charge of Discrimination. Mediation is a no-cost, voluntary, and confidential opportunity for both parties to work with a neutral mediator to discuss and resolve the EEOC Charge before an investigation of the Charge.

Here are five reasons you should participate:

It's the FASTEST way to resolve your charge – We try to resolve charges within 90 days.

It's fair and confidential – The mediator is a neutral facilitator who helps the parties find a solution to the problem. All discussions with the mediator are strictly confidential and are NOT part of the EEOC's investigation of the charge.

It provides a GLOBAL resolution to the charge – Mediation allows you to address all of your employment concerns, not just those discussed in the charge. It is an open forum that allows the parties to discuss any additional issues that the parties wish to resolve.

You CONTROL the outcome – The mediator will work with you to identify the best options that exist to resolve your charge at this early stage. You will determine what options are workable and you are free to accept or reject any options.

It's FREE and EFFECTIVE – There is no cost to mediate your case. EEOC resolves more than 75% of the charges it mediates. And, more than 96% of parties surveyed say they would choose to mediate again in the future. If mediation doesn't resolve the charge, then EEOC determines whether to proceed further with an investigation.

Would you like to mediate this charge?

Yes
 No
 Undecided

EEOC may contact you to discuss the Mediation Program with you, to help you decide whether mediation is best you.

We look forward to working with you in bringing this matter to an amicable resolution and demonstrating why so many Charging Parties consider the EEOC Mediation Program their partner in workplace solutions.

CHARGE NUMBER: 440-2020-00015
FEPA NUMBER:

Charging Party: Joan O Arc
Respondent:

This is an agreement by the above parties to participate in mediation in the above referenced charge. The parties understand that mediation is a voluntary process, which may be terminated at any time. The parties and, if they desire, their representatives and/or attorneys, are invited to attend a mediation session. No one else may attend without the permission of the parties and the consent of the mediator(s).

The mediator(s) will not function as the representative of either party. However, the mediator(s) may assist the parties in crafting a settlement agreement. Each party acknowledges being advised to seek independent legal review prior to signing any settlement agreement. The parties acknowledge that they have received a copy of the Mediation Fact Sheet. The parties acknowledge that the mediator(s) possesses the discretion to terminate the mediation at any time if an impasse occurs or either party or the mediator deems the case inappropriate for mediation.

The parties acknowledge that participation in the scheduled mediation does not constitute an admission by either party of any wrongdoing or of a violation of the laws enforced by EEOC. Furthermore, the Charging Party acknowledges that participation in the scheduled mediation by the Respondent does not commit the Respondent to providing a monetary resolution of the matter.

The parties recognize that mediation is a confidential process and agree to abide by the terms of the attached Confidentiality Agreement. The parties acknowledge that if a settlement is reached as a result of the mediation, the assigned mediator(s) is required to report to EEOC any benefits received. 4.3 Other Mediation Outcomes

After accepting the offer to mediate, this message may display in the EEOC Public Portal if the respondent also accepts:

Both parties have agreed to mediate. As a result, the mediator will contact the parties in the coming weeks to discuss scheduling. In the meantime, all investigative processing has been put on suspense pending the outcome of mediation.

If your case is not eligible for mediation, this message displays in the EEOC Public Portal:

Upon further review this charge is deemed ineligible for mediation at this time and will be transferred to EEOC's Enforcement Unit.

If the attempt to mediate is unsuccessful, this message displays in the EEOC Public Portal:

EEOC's efforts to mediate this charge were unsuccessful, so EEOC will request the Respondent to provide a position statement and notify you when we receive it.

Chapter 5 Request and Receive a Position Statement

The EEOC may request the respondent to provide a written answer to your charge (called a "Position Statement"). You will receive an email when the EEOC has a Position Statement from the respondent that is ready for you to review. You can request a copy of the Position Statement via the EEOC Public Portal. You may also upload a response to the Position Statement via the EEOC Public Portal (refer to Chapter 6).

To request and receive a copy of the Respondent's Position Statement, perform the following steps:

- Step 1. A respondent (or the EEOC) uploads a Position Statement.
- Step 2. After the Position Statement is uploaded to a charge, you and your Representative (if one has been identified) will receive an email from the EEOC that a Position Statement has been requested from the Respondent.
- Step 3. When you login to the EEOC Public Portal, this message displays:

We asked {Respondent Organization} to submit a Position Statement on your charge.

You may request the Position Statement if you would like to see it. Please be aware that by requesting these documents, you agree that you will only share them with persons in a privileged relationship, such as a spouse, clergy, or medical, financial, or legal advisor.

Would you like to receive a copy of the Respondent's Position Statement once we've received it and reviewed it?
- Step 4. You may select Yes to request the Position Statement. If you select Yes, this message displays in the EEOC Public Portal:

The EEOC has received your request for the respondent's Position Statement. EEOC will notify you by email when the Position Statement is available for you to review.

Before we provide the Position Statement and attachments to you, the EEOC investigator reviews the documents to ensure they do not contain confidential information. We ask you to be patient as we receive many requests for Position Statements and it may take several weeks to review and release the Position Statement and attachments related to your charge.
- Step 5. Typically, the EEOC will release the document to the EEOC Public Portal. The EEOC may determine that the document needs to be redacted first and, if so, will make the necessary changes before releasing it.
- Step 6. Once the document has been released to the EEOC Public Portal, you and your representative (if one has been identified) will receive an email that the document is available.
- Step 7. When you login into the EEOC Public Portal, this message displays,

EEOC has provided the respondent's Position Statement, relevant attachments, and any supplemental position statements on this page, under Document Management. It will be helpful to EEOC's investigation if you provide a response to the Respondent's position statement by {date of Position Statement issuance + 20 days}.

Any information you provide will be taken into consideration when the EEOC reviews your case. Please upload your response through the Public Portal. Be sure to identify any further witnesses, their contact information, and a brief synopsis of what they will say.

There is no specific format for your response; however, be sure to point out discrepancies in the employer's information and explain what you believe to have happened. This is your opportunity to provide any additional information you feel is relevant to support your case.

Please be aware that by receiving these documents before you have filed a lawsuit based upon your charge, you agree that you will only show them with persons in a privileged relationship, such as a spouse, clergy, or medical, financial, or legal advisor.

Step 8. To view/download a Position Statement, scroll down to My Documents and select the Name.

My Documents

If you have documents supporting your charge, please upload them using this portal. Documents that you send and any that EEOC may send to you (including your Charge of Discrimination and the respondent's Position Statement, if you request a copy) are listed below. Appendix A. Mediation Documents

Invitation to Mediate for CP

The EEOC Mediation Program:

Your Partner in Workplace Solutions!

We invite you to participate in the EEOC's Mediation Program to efficiently resolve your Charge of Discrimination. Mediation is a no-cost, voluntary, and confidential opportunity for both parties to work with a neutral mediator to discuss and resolve the EEOC Charge before an investigation of the Charge.

Here are five reasons you should participate:

It's the FASTEST way to resolve your charge – We try to resolve charges within 90 days.

It's fair and confidential – The mediator is a neutral facilitator who helps the parties find a solution to the problem. All discussions with the mediator are strictly confidential and are NOT part of the EEOC's investigation of the charge.

It provides a GLOBAL resolution to the charge – Mediation allows you to address all of your employment concerns, not just those discussed in the charge. It is an open forum that allows the parties to discuss any additional issues that the parties wish to resolve.

You CONTROL the outcome – The mediator will work with you to identify the best options that exist to resolve your charge at this early stage. You will determine what options are workable and you are free to accept or reject any options.

It's FREE and EFFECTIVE – There is no cost to mediate your case. EEOC resolves more than 75% of the charges it mediates. And, more than 96% of parties surveyed say they would choose to mediate again in the future. If mediation doesn't resolve the charge, then EEOC determines whether to proceed further with an investigation.

Would you like to mediate this charge?

Yes No Undecided

We look forward to working with you in bringing this matter to an amicable resolution and demonstrating why so many Charging Parties consider the EEOC Mediation Program their partner in workplace solutions.

AGREEMENT TO MEDIATE

CHARGE NUMBER: {Truncated EEOC Number}

FEPA NUMBER: {FEPA Number}

Charging Party: {CP Full Name}

Respondent: {Respondent Organization Name}

This is an agreement by the above parties to participate in mediation in the above referenced charge. The parties understand that mediation is a voluntary process, which may be terminated at any time. The parties and, if they desire, their representatives and/or attorneys, are invited to attend a mediation session. No one else may attend without the permission of the parties and the consent of the mediator(s).

The mediator(s) will not function as the representative of either party. However, the mediator(s) may assist the parties in crafting a settlement agreement. Each party acknowledges being advised to seek independent legal review prior to signing any settlement agreement. The parties acknowledge that they have received a copy of the Mediation Fact Sheet. The parties acknowledge that the mediator(s) possesses the discretion to terminate the mediation at any time if an impasse occurs or either party or the mediator deems the case inappropriate for mediation.

The parties acknowledge that participation in the scheduled mediation does not constitute an admission by either party of any wrongdoing or of a violation of the laws enforced by EEOC. Furthermore, the Charging Party acknowledges that participation in the scheduled mediation by the Respondent does not commit the Respondent to providing a monetary resolution of the matter.

The parties recognize that mediation is a confidential process and agree to abide by the terms of the attached Confidentiality Agreement. The parties acknowledge that if a settlement is reached as a result of the mediation, the assigned mediator(s) is required to report to EEOC any benefits received. This information is reported only for purposes of providing aggregate data to the EEOC for mediation program evaluation purposes, and the individual terms of the agreement will not be disclosed to the public.
