Introduction to the EEOC Public Portal

The EEOC Public Portal is a secure, web-based application developed for individuals to interact with the EEOC regarding a complaint of employment discrimination. Using the EEOC Public Portal, you may file a complaint against an employer in the Private Sector (i.e. Business or non-profit) or a State or Local Government Agency. If you work or worked for the U.S. Federal Government as an employee or a contractor, or applied to work for the Federal Government, you may request a hearing with or appeal a decision to the EEOC regarding your formal EEO complaint. The EEOC Public Portal is the primary point of communication between you and the EEOC.

About the User's Guide

The EEOC Public Portal User's Guide ("User's Guide") provides comprehensive guidance for using the EEOC Public Portal's features and functions. The User's Guide is published as individual documents, each of which covers a feature or related features of the EEOC Public Portal.

The following EEOC Public Portal User's Guide documents are available; the highlighted Document Name is the one you're reading right now:

- ❖ Vol 1 – Getting Started (learn about logging into the EEOC Public Portal, the Portal structure, and other basic information)
- ❖ Vol 2 – Submit an Online Inquiry to the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 3 – Post-Inquiry Tasks (learn about scheduling an interview with the EEOC, entering Supplemental Information, filing a Charge of Discrimination)
- ❖ Vol 4 – Post-Charge Tasks (learn how to check the status of your case, respond to an Invitation to Mediate, request/respond to a Respondent's Position Statement)
- ❖ Vol 5 – Charge Closure (learn what happens when your charge has been closed)
- ❖ Vol 6 – Hearings with the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 7 – Appealing Federal Agency Decisions to the EEOC
- ❖ Vol 8 – Manage Case/Charge Information (learn how to display information about your case, enter/update your personal information, add representatives, and submit/receive documents associated with your case)

Chapter 1 Displaying Information About Your Case

If you have requested a hearing, filed an appeal, or submitted a request for reconsideration (RFR) with the EEOC, as a federal sector employee, applicant or contractor, you can click on My Cases on the EEOC Public Portal to view the case information and associated documents. If you have more than one case filed with the EEOC, the My Cases Listing will display all your cases (see Figure 1). This screen displays a list of all the cases (hearings, appeals, RFRs) you have filed with the EEOC and their status. If you have only one case you will be taken directly to the My Case page when you click on My Cases on the Portal's home page.

The My Cases Listing is sorted by submission date, with newest cases listed first. If you have a large number of cases, use the page navigation buttons (<< < > >>) to move between pages. Select the case you wish to view by clicking on the Case Number; this will display the My Case page.

A hearing, appeal, or RFR case will have different process status as the case progresses. You can find out about the status of your case at any time when you login to the EEOC Public Portal. The case status column displays as follows:

- For hearing requests, the status will be one of the following:
 - Open – The hearing request has been submitted to the EEOC.
 - Referred to ADR – An invitation to ADR has been sent to both parties and the EEOC is waiting for their response.
 - ADR Scheduling – The EEOC is in the process of scheduling an ADR session with both parties.
 - ADR Scheduled – The EEOC has scheduled an ADR session with both parties.
 - ADR Held – The ADR session was held.
 - ADR Complete – ADR has been completed.
 - ADR Successful – The ADR session resulted in a resolution of the complaint.

- ADR Unsuccessful – The ADR session did not result in a resolution of the complaint.
- Pending AJ Assignment – The EEOC is in the process of assigning the complaint to an Administrative Judge to continue processing.
- Assigned to AJ – The EEOC has assigned the complaint to an Administrative Judge to continue processing.
- Hearing Scheduled – The EEOC has scheduled a hearing on the complaint.
- Hearing Held – The hearing on the complaint was concluded.
- Closure Document Issued – A closure document was issued in the case.
- Closed – The case is now closed.
- For appeals and RFRs the status will be one of the following:
 - Appeal Received – The appeal request has been received by the EEOC.
 - Complaint File Received – The EEOC has received the complaint file from the agency.
 - Complaint File Not Received – The EEOC has not received the complaint file from the agency.
 - Appeal Being Processed – The EEOC is working on the appeal.
 - Appeal Closed/Issued – The EEOC has issued a decision and closed the appeal.

1.1 My Case Page

The My Case page provides information for hearings, appeals, and RFRs, both open and closed cases. Each is discussed in the subsections that follow.

1.1.1 My Case Page for Hearings

If you have requested a hearing, the My Case page will appear as shown in Figure 2 below (the page shown illustrates the My Case page for a hearing request, but the My Case page for an appeal or RFR is very similar). The page is divided into three sections: My Case, My Representatives, and My Documents. Descriptions of the numbered items follow Figure 2. (NOTE: Numbers are not actually seen on the screen.)

For hearing requests, you will see the following additional information on the My Case page:

- When a hearing status changes, a description will display on the My Case page between the My Case and My Representatives sections (e.g. "A hearing in the case is scheduled"). These are informative and do not require you to respond.
- If the hearing request is eligible for ADR, you will see the invitation to participate in ADR on the My Case page between the My Case and My Representatives sections. For details on accepting or rejecting an invitation to participate in ADR, refer to EEOC Public Portal User's Guide Volume 6 – Hearings with the EEOC.

The screenshot displays the 'My Case' page for a hearing request. At the top, the EEOC logo and 'U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission' are visible, along with a home icon, the user name 'Joan', and a 'Log Out' link. The main content is organized into three numbered sections:

- 1 My Case: Includes a blue 'Update My Information' button, the case title 'EEOC Hearing Request 440-2019-00016X', a paragraph of introductory text, and the status 'Status: Open'.
- 2 My Representatives: Features an 'Add Representative' button and a table with columns for First Name, Last Name, Middle Initial, and a 'View/Update' button. The table contains one entry: Joseph Attorney T.
- 3 My Documents: Includes an 'Upload' button, a paragraph of instructions, a table with columns for Name, Type, and Added On, and a list of documents. The table shows one document: 'Request for Hearing.docx' of type 'Hearing Request' added on '06/10/2019'. Below the table are 'My Cases' and 'Return Home' buttons.

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with technical support contact information, an Accessibility Statement, and a Privacy Statement.

- 1 My Case. This section displays the general information about your hearing/appeal/RFR and allows you to update your contact information. (Chapter 2)
- 2 My Representatives. This section displays a table of the (legal or non-legal) representatives you have entered. You may add, update, or delete your representatives here. If you have not entered any representatives, the My Representatives section displays only the Add Representative button. (Chapter 3)
- 3 My Documents. This section displays the documents associated with your hearing/appeal/RFR that you have submitted, the agency has submitted, or that the EEOC has sent to you (e.g. Report of Investigation, Initial Acknowledgement Notice). You may view, download, and/or submit documents here. (Chapter 4)

1.1.2 My Case Page for Appeals/RFRs

If you have filed an appeal or submitted an RFR, the My Case page will appear as shown in Figure 3 below (the page shown illustrates the My Case page for an initial appeal, but the My Case page for an RFR is very similar). The page is divided into three sections: My Case, My Representatives, and My Documents.

Initial Appeals from an Agency's Decision on an EEO Complaint, and Appeals from a Decision on a Grievance Containing Claims of Discrimination

You may submit documents related to your appeal to the EEOC using this Portal. However, please be aware that EEOC's regulations at 29 C.F.R. § 1614.403\(d\) state that any statement or brief in support of the appeal must be submitted to the Office of Federal Operations within 30 days of filing the notice of appeal. Accordingly, if you elect to file any statements or briefs after the 30-day time period, it will be at the discretion of the attorney reviewing the matter whether or not to read or consider them during the adjudication of your appeal.

Petitions for Review of a Decision by the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) on an MSPB Appeal Containing Claims of Discrimination

The Commission's regulations at 29 C.F.R. § 1614.304\(b\)\(3\) require that any statement or brief in support of a petition be filed at the same time as the Petition for Review is filed. Accordingly, if you elect to file any statements or briefs after you filed the Petition, it will be at the discretion of the attorney reviewing the matter whether or not to read or consider them during the adjudication of your Petition for Review.

Requests for Reconsideration of an EEOC Decision on an Appeal

EEOC management Directive 110, which provides federal agencies and complainants with Commission policies, procedures, and guidance relating to the processing of employment discrimination complaints governed by the Commission's regulations in 29 C.F.R. Part 1614 require that any statement or brief in support of a Request for Reconsideration be filed at the same time as the Request is filed. Accordingly, if you elect to file any statements or briefs after you filed the Request, it will be at the discretion of the attorney reviewing the matter whether or not to read or consider them during the adjudication of your Request for Reconsideration.

You can open a document to review it or download and save it. Please submit only documents of the available Document Types. Documents that you send to or receive from the EEOC are listed below.

1.1.3 My Case Page for Closed Cases

You may continue to view information for your case after it has been closed. You may not make any changes to the case information or representatives, and you may not submit any documents (though downloading documents is permitted).

The screenshot displays the EEOC public portal interface. At the top, there is a header with the EEOC logo, the text 'U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission', a home icon, and a user greeting 'Welcome, Joan | Log Out'. The main content area is titled 'My Case' and features a blue 'View My Information' button. Below this, the case title 'EEOC Hearing Request 440-2019-00001X' is shown, followed by a paragraph explaining the hearing request process. The status is 'Closed', and a message informs the user that the case is closed and to review the Closure Document. The 'My Representatives' section contains a table with one entry: Joseph Atty, with a 'View' button. The 'My Documents' section includes a warning about submission instructions and a table listing two documents: 'Report of Investigation_440-2019-00001X.docx' and 'Order on Exhibits_440-2019-00001X.docx'. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'My Cases' and 'Return Home', and a footer with 'Technical Support', 'Accessibility Statement', 'Privacy Statement', and '2013-2019 AINS, Inc. All Rights Reserved.'

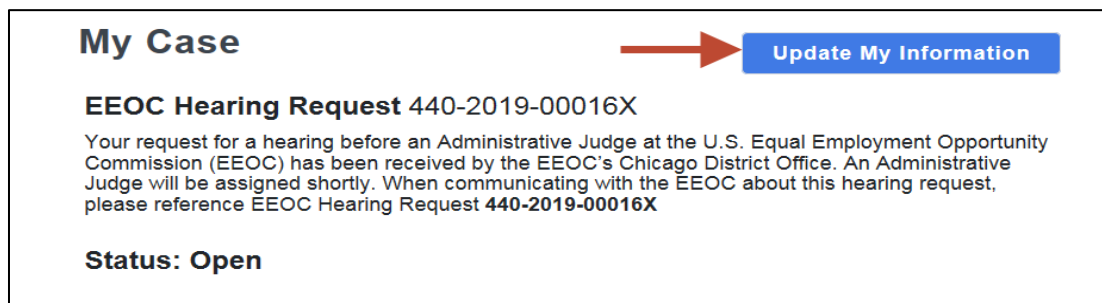

Chapter 2 Manage Contact Information

Please remember that it is your responsibility to ensure that the EEOC has your current address and contact information. On the My Case page, you can update your contact information (name, address, phone number, etc.). This allows you to keep the EEOC informed in the event that you have moved, or changed your phone number or email address. (For the example in this chapter, information for a hearing is shown but the process for appeals and RFRs is identical.)

- Tip! You cannot change your email address using the Update My Information button on the My Case page for a specific case. You must use the Update Account page as described in EEOC Public Portal User's Guide - Volume 1 – Getting Started.

To update your contact information, perform the following steps:

Step 1. On the My Case page, click on the Update My Information button.

Step 2. On the Complainant Information page, your current contact information is displayed (initially you will see the information you entered when submitting your request). Make any needed changes.

- Step 3. Click on the Save button. Click on the Back button to return to the My Case page.
- Step 4. Click on Update My Information at any time to view/update the information.

Chapter 3 Manage Representatives

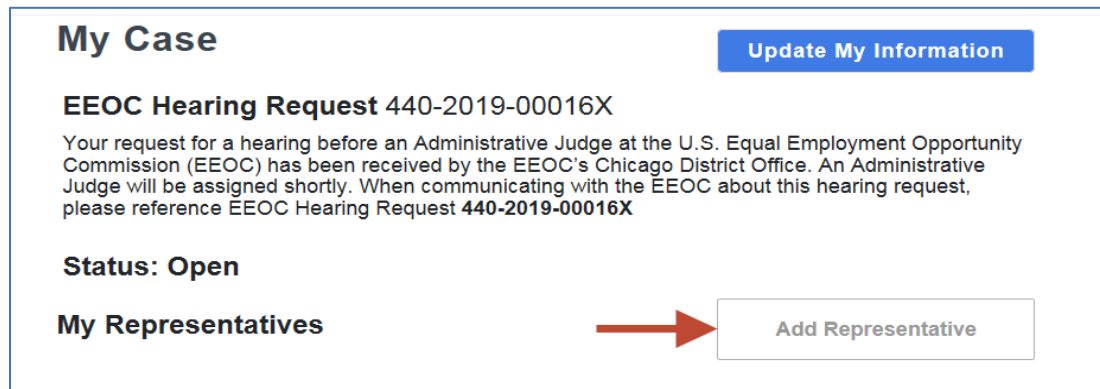

If you have an attorney or another person representing you before the EEOC, you may enter information about the person who represents you on the My Case page. (For the examples in this chapter, information for a hearing is shown but the process for appeals and RFRs is identical.)

- Tip! You may enter multiple representatives. The representatives you enter will be listed in the table in the My Representatives section on the My Case page.

3.1 Add a Representative

To add a representative, perform the following steps:

- Step 1. On the My Case page, click the Add Representative button.

The screenshot shows the 'My Case' page interface. At the top left is the title 'My Case' and at the top right is a blue button labeled 'Update My Information'. Below the title, the text reads 'EEOC Hearing Request 440-2019-00016X' followed by a paragraph: 'Your request for a hearing before an Administrative Judge at the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) has been received by the EEOC's Chicago District Office. An Administrative Judge will be assigned shortly. When communicating with the EEOC about this hearing request, please reference EEOC Hearing Request 440-2019-00016X'. Below this is the text 'Status: Open'. At the bottom left is the section header 'My Representatives'. To the right of this header is a red arrow pointing to a button labeled 'Add Representative'.

- Step 2. The Representative Information page displays. Indicate if the person who represents you is an attorney by clicking on either the Yes or No button.
- Step 3. Enter the information for the representative.

Chapter 4 Submit and Receive Documents

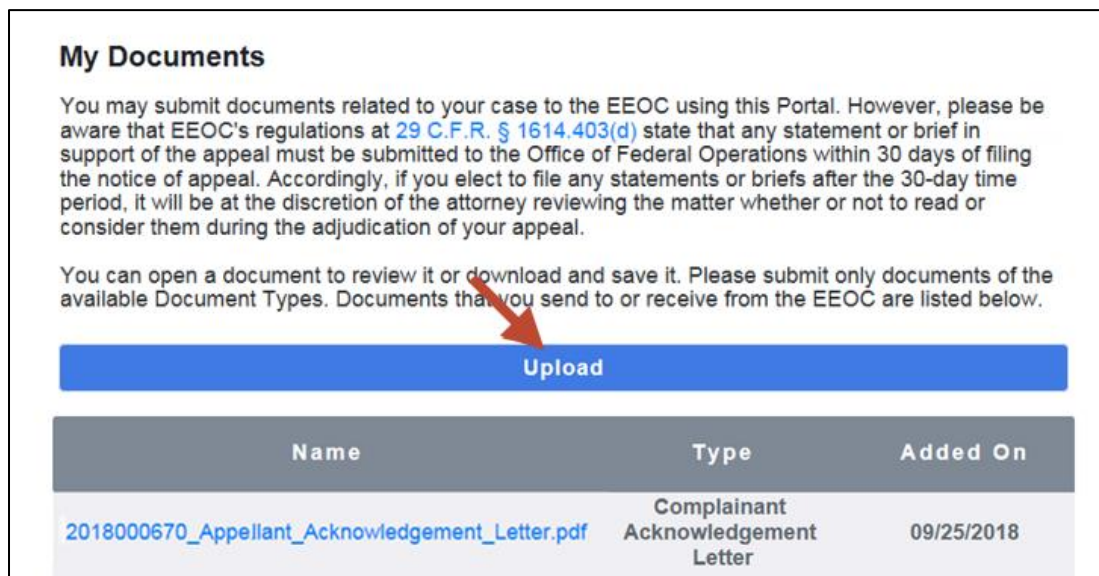

4.1 Submit Documents to the EEOC/Agency

In the My Documents section of the My Case page, you may upload documents supporting your hearing or appeal. Please wait for further instructions from the Administrative Judge. Submissions that do not follow the Judges' instructions may result in the Administrative Judge not considering the submission.

When you upload documents in the Portal, they will be available for you, the EEOC and the agency to read. Once you have uploaded a document, you can open or save it. An uploaded document cannot be deleted.

To upload a document, perform the following steps (for this example, uploading a document for an appeal is shown but the process for hearings and RFRs is identical):

Step 1. On the My Case page, click on the Upload button.

Step 2. The Upload Document window displays.

Step 3. Select the Type of Document from the drop-down list.

Step 4. Select the file to upload by clicking on the Attach Document button.

Navigate to the file in the Choose File to Upload window and click on OK.

Step 5. Click on the Upload button in the Upload Document window.

Step 6. The document you uploaded is displayed at the top of the My Documents list (documents are listed by Added On date, in reverse chronological order, with the most recently uploaded documents listed first).

4.2 View/Download Documents

In the My Documents section of the My Case page, you will see a list of the documents associated with your case that you have sent to the EEOC and those that the EEOC or the agency has sent to you. You may download a copy of a document to view it at any time. You may also save the document to your computer.

The information displayed for each document in the My Documents list is shown in Table 1 below.

Table 1 – Document Information Displayed on the Portal

Column Name	Description
Name	The name of the document. Identical to the document’s file name minus the file extension.
Type	The document type (e.g. “Complainant Appeal Brief”).
Added On	The date the document was uploaded.

To download a document, perform the following steps:

Step 1. On the My Case page, in the My Documents section, locate in the list of documents the one you want to download and click on the Name to start downloading it.

Step 2. The document will be downloaded. Choose to open it, or save the file to your computer or a shared drive, as shown below:

If you choose to save it, you will be asked to select a location on your computer where you want it saved. (You may also rename the document if you choose to save it.)

Be sure to save all documents related to your hearing, or appeal, including Email correspondence.
