Introduction to the EEOC Public Portal

The EEOC Public Portal is a secure, web-based application developed for individuals to interact with the EEOC regarding a complaint of employment discrimination. Using the EEOC Public Portal, you may file a complaint against an employer in the Private Sector (i.e. Business or non-profit) or a State or Local Government Agency. If you work or worked for the U.S. Federal Government as an employee or a contractor, or applied to work for the Federal Government, you may request a hearing with or appeal a decision to the EEOC regarding your formal EEO complaint. The EEOC Public Portal is the primary point of communication between you and the EEOC.

About the User’s Guide

The EEOC Public Portal User’s Guide ("User’s Guide") provides comprehensive guidance for using the EEOC Public Portal’s features and functions. The User’s Guide is published as individual documents, each of which covers a feature or related features of the EEOC Public Portal.

The following EEOC Public Portal User’s Guide documents are available; the highlighted Document Name is the one you’re reading now:

- Vol 1 – Getting Started (learn about logging into the EEOC Public Portal, the Portal structure, and other basic information)
- Vol 2 – Submit an Online Inquiry to the EEOC
- Vol 3 – Post-Inquiry Tasks (learn about scheduling an interview with the EEOC, entering Supplemental Information, filing a Charge of Discrimination)
- Vol 4 – Post-Charge Tasks (learn how to check the status of your case, respond to an Invitation to Mediate, request/respond to a Respondent’s Position Statement)
- Vol 5 – Charge Closure (learn what happens when your charge has been closed)
- Vol 6 – Hearings with the EEOC
- Vol 7 – Appealing Federal Agency Decisions to the EEOC
- Vol 8 – Manage Case/Charge Information (learn how to display information about your case, enter/update your personal information, add representatives, and submit/receive documents associated with your case)
Chapter 1  Appeal an Agency’s Decision to the EEOC

To file an appeal with EEOC, perform the following steps:

Step 1. Go to the EEOC Public Portal home page at https://publicportal.eeoc.gov

Step 2. On the EEOC Public Portal home page, click Filing with EEOC.

Step 3. When asked to identify the Type of Employer you believe discriminated against you, select ‘Federal Government agency…’ and click on the Next button.

Step 4. An informational page displays with links to help you learn more about EEOC and the hearing and appeal processes. When you are ready to continue, click on the Next button.

Step 5. The What would you like to do? page displays. Select File a new appeal and click on the Next button.
Step 6. An informational page displays with information about filing an appeal. Click on the Next button to continue.

Step 7. You must have an EEOC Public Portal user account. If you have not used the EEOC Public Portal before, click on the Sign-Up Now button to create your user account (see EEOC Public Portal User’s Guide Vol 1 – Getting Started for details).

➢ Tip! If you already registered with the EEOC, click on the Returning Users button and login.

Step 8. Your personal information is displayed, which will be submitted with the online inquiry. This screen is view-only. Click on the Continue button to proceed.

➢ Tip! If you need to modify this information, click on the link at the top of the page to go to your User Account Information. When you have finished and submitted your changes, you will be returned to inquiry submission process.

Step 9. Next, you will be asked if you want to enter information about your representative (this is optional, but if you are being represented by an attorney or another individual in the EEO process, you should identify your representative here). Select Yes or No and click on the Next button to continue.
➢ Tip! If you choose not to enter a legal representative now, you will be able to enter one later, on the My Case page.

Step 10. If you selected Yes, a form will display for you to fill in the representative information. When you are finished, click on the Next button to continue.
➢ Tip! EEOC verifies that the representative represents you by sending a verification email to the email address provided by you for your representative. EEOC expects a reply from the representative within 10 days of sending a verification email; if they haven’t received a reply after 10 days, then you will receive an email notifying you that EEOC has been unable to verify the representative.

Step 11. A page displays showing the representative(s) you have entered. Click on the Add Another Representative button to add another representative. Click on the View/Update Delete button to make changes. When you are finished, click on the Next button to continue.

Step 12. Next, you will be asked to provide information about the Agency named in your EEO complaint, the identification number that the agency initially assigned to your complaint (Agency Complaint Number), and other information about your case. First, enter the Agency information and click on the Next button to continue.

➢ Tip! It is crucial that you enter the correct Agency Complaint Number(s) associated with your complaint. This will allow EEOC to get the right documents from the right record-keeping agency about the right case. Entering the wrong Agency Complaint Number will delay the processing of your appeal.

➢ Tip! You can find the Agency Complaint Number listed in several documents, most commonly in your formal complaint (some agencies refer to this number as the "Case number"), the decision of an EEOC administrative judge, or the final decision of an agency. Agencies use different formats for their Agency Complaint Numbers.

➢ Tip! You may enter more than one Agency Complaint Number by clicking on the Add Another Complaint Number button. See screenshot below.
Step 13. Next, you will be asked for some general information about your case (i.e. has final action been taken, has a complaint on this matter been filed with the EEOC or another agency, has a civil suit been filed). If you are appealing an agency’s final action based on an EEOC Administrative Judge’s decision (with or without a hearing), you should also provide the EEOC Hearing Number assigned to your hearing. When you are finished, click on the Submit Appeal button.

➢ Tip! If you enter an EEOC Hearing Number, it must be the number of an EEOC hearing to proceed with an appeal.

➢ Tip! You can find the EEOC Hearing Number in the decision of the EEOC administrative judge. An example of an EEOC hearing number is 520-2012-00123X.

➢ Tip! You may enter only one hearing number. If you are filing an appeal of more than one hearing, you must file an appeal separately for each hearing.
Step 14. When the request is successfully submitted, you will receive an email titled "Acknowledgment of Appeal Request through the EEOC Public Portal". The Notice may also be downloaded from the My Cases page for the appeal.

In the Portal, you will also see confirmation with your appeal number as shown below (Note: the number displayed is for a fictional appeal.)

Be sure to write down the appeal number so that you can reference it when communicating with the EEOC.
Chapter 2  Uploading Appeal Documents

After you have filed an appeal through the EEOC Public Portal, you can upload documents associated with your appeal. Click on the Upload button to begin and follow the prompts provided.

For Details see EEOC Public Portal User’s Guide Vol 8 – Managing Case Information.
Chapter 3   Viewing and Managing Information About Your Appeal

After you have filed an appeal with the EEOC, you may view the details of your appeal and associated documents by clicking on My Cases on the EEOC Public Portal Home Page. From the My Cases page you may also add Legal Representatives, update your contact information, and submit documents to the EEOC.

For Details see EEOC Public Portal User’s Guide Vol 8 – Managing Case Information.
Chapter 4  Request for Reconsideration (RFR) of EEOC’s Decision

If you disagree with the EEOC’s decision on your appeal, you may submit a request for reconsideration of the decision within 30 days of the decision. To submit a request for reconsideration of EEOC’s appellate decision, you must provide:

- Your contact information
- Your representative’s contact information
- The EEOC Appeal Number for the appellate decision you would like the EEOC to reconsider.

You will also be asked to upload supporting documents or a statement in support of your request for reconsideration.

To submit a request for reconsideration to the EEOC, perform the following steps:

Step 1. Go to the EEOC Public Portal home page at https://publicportal.eeoc.gov

Step 2. On the EEOC Public Portal home page, click Filing with EEOC.

Step 3. When asked to identify the Type of Employer you believe discriminated against you, select ‘Federal Government agency...’ and click on the Next button.

Step 4. The What would you like to do? page displays. Select Request reconsideration of the EEOC’s appellate decision on my EEO Complaint and click on the Next button.
Step 5. An informational page displays with information about a request for reconsideration. Click on the Next button to continue.

Step 6. You must have an EEOC Public Portal user account. If you have not used the EEOC Public Portal before, click on the Sign-Up Now button to create your user account (see EEOC Public Portal User’s Guide Vol 1 – Getting Started for details).

➢ Tip! If you already registered with the EEOC, click on the Returning Users button and login.

Step 7. Your personal information is displayed, which will be submitted with the request. This screen is view-only. Click on the Continue button to proceed.

➢ Tip! If you need to modify this information, click on the link at the top of the page to go to your User Account Information. When you have finished and submitted your changes, you will be returned to RFR submission process.
Step 8. Next, you will be asked to provide the Appeal Number of the appeal you are asking the EEOC to reconsider. Enter the number in the space provided.

➢ Tip! You can find the EEOC Appeal Number in the decision that you received from the EEOC for your appeal. It is located on the first page of the decision, beside the label Appeal No.

➢ Tip! You may submit only one RFR for a case.
Step 9. Next you may identify your representative(s). First, you will be asked if you want to keep the same representative as in the prior appeal. Select Yes or No and click on the Next button to continue.

!Request for Reconsideration

Step 10. If you chose to keep the same representative, that representative’s information will be copied from the prior appeal to the new RFR. If you chose not to keep the same representative, you will be asked if you want to enter information about your representative (this is optional, but if you are being represented by an attorney or another individual in the EEO process, you should identify your representative here). Select Yes or No and click on the Next button to continue.

!Representative Information

Step 11. If you selected Yes, a form will display for you to fill in the representative information. When you are finished, click on the Next button to continue.
➢ Tip! If you added a new representative, the EEOC verifies that the representative represents you by sending a verification email to the email address provided by you for your representative. EEOC expects a reply from the representative within 10 days of sending a verification email; if they haven’t received a reply after 10 days, then you will receive an email notifying you that EEOC has been unable to verify the representative.

Step 12. A page displays showing the representative(s) you have entered. Click on the Add Another Representative button to add another representative. Click on the View/Update/Delete button to make changes. When you are finished, click on the Next button to continue.
Step 13. Once you have entered the appeal number and any representatives(s) you are ready to submit the RFR. Click on the Submit button to complete the submission.

Step 14. When the request is successfully submitted, you and the Agency will receive an email with the Preliminary Acknowledgement Notice. The Notice may also be viewed on the My Cases page for the RFR.

In the Portal, you will also see confirmation with the EEOC tracking number for your request as shown below (Note: the number displayed is for a fictional RFR.)

Be sure to write down the tracking number so that you can reference it when communicating with the EEOC.

A follow-up Acknowledgement Letter will be emailed to you and the Agency after the case is docketed.
Step 15. Go to the My Case page for your case to upload supporting documents. Click on the View Request/Upload Document button.

➢ Tip! EEOC requires that any supporting statement or brief be filed at the same time as you submit your request for reconsideration. Accordingly, you are strongly advised to submit supporting documents or a statement in support of your request for reconsideration through the EEOC Public Portal at the time you submit your request for reconsideration. Later submissions may not be considered in the adjudication of your request.
